Editorial

Many of our club members are professional types, by this, I mean Doctors, Lawyers, Accountants etc. so the majority have something in common. They write in shorthand! (Or is it Latin?)

My education was not of the highest standard (four of the many schools that I attended were bombed - and I was only 13 years old when I left school and joined the Merchant Navy) So I do have some difficulty when trying to decipher the various notes and game notations sent in to me. Could I therefore humbly plead that before you send in your game notations etc. you could rewrite them without using the joined-up-writing so that a non-professional type (Such as myself) will be able to read them more easily? I would appreciate that. Some of the games played in the club are well worth preserving and one can obtain a lot of enjoyment (and learn a lot) from replaying them. Try playing out the games that I do publish and you will see what I mean! Happy New Year!

More results can be found on pages two, three and five. I would like to thank the team captains for their time and effort in getting results to me so quickly (and so readable!). Unfortunately by the time I have typed them up and laid them out on the Newsletter, they are a little "dated". With the recent promotions we expected a setback or two, but overall I think that Kingston is doing quite well, surely a bit better than we really expected?

Missed out on the early issues?

It is still possible to get them! Have a word with the club secretary and if he cannot help give the tribe scribe a call! they are now becoming collectors items!

KINGSTON Chess Club meet at 7.30 pm every week on a Monday at the Quaker meeting House in Eden Street, Kingston-upon-Thames. No meetings on Bank Holidays. For more details contact the club Secretary:- Mathew Baker. Tel: 0181 541 3206

A very interesting game. Let's hope that we see some more like this! Well played Ken.

Bill has been playing chess with some Americans.
"You seen my dog?" he asked me.
"No!" I answered.
"Waal Doggone!" said Bill.

Welcome!

A warm welcome to the club goes to Nicholas Grey who lives in New Malden and has recently joined us. Previously Nick has been playing for Battersea. He has a grading of 156 and I know that all the team Captains will be pleased to hear that Nick will now be playing for us, instead of against us! Kingston's recent promotions together with the number of players who have left in recent months make this a difficult time and a much harder struggle to retain our places in the various leagues. All of which goes to make our welcome even warmer!

Welcome!

Another warm welcome goes to Mark Steedman who has also recently joined us. Like myself, Mark is not graded, but having played him on two occasions and got soundly beaten I know that he will be on the "Reserve" straight away. Although everybody knows that beating me at chess is no great achievement! Nevertheless Mark is certainly a worthy opponent. (Ask Chris Clegg!) We wish you the very best of luck Mark, and hope that you enjoy many games with the Kingston Club.
